APPENDIX B: Interview schedules

| Research question | Interview questions :Athletes 15 – 17 year olds |
|---|---|
| What are the needs and problems of high performance athletes who are still at school, and what are the characteristics of successful schooling models that best meet the needs of these young people?Guiding questions:What are the goals and expected outcomes that high performance school-age athletes have, and how might these different goals be in conflict?What are the experiences of the high performance athlete at school within different schooling models?What schooling models exist in Australia for the high performance athletes? | Introducing:Can you tell me about your experiences of being a high performance athlete at your school?Do you remember a time when you having these experiences?Could you describe in as much detail as you can an experience you think or thought was one in which you faced problems in combing school and sport commitments at your school?Follow up:Key on initial responses |
| Same question-different contexts for three groups of participants:15-17 year athletesConcrete situations better than hypothetical or theoretical questionsWhy & what before howMix difficult and easy questions | Probing:Could you say something more about (support)....?Can you give a more detailed description of.....?Can you think or any times when.....? |
| | Specifying:What are your views of the school you attend?What do you see as problems in young people that combine both the commitments of full-time sport and full-time schooling?What problems do these young people encounter?What are these young people needs?What are your views of the competing demands of school and sport? |
| | Indirect:How do you think young athletes balance between sport and education commitments?How do you think other high performance school-age athletes cope with this combination of sport and education commitments?How does your school support and address the problems and needs of high performance school-age athletes?How would you describe an athlete friendly experience?How would you describe an athlete unfriendly experience?Towards end of interview if necessary:Direct:Have you ever.....When you mention.....Do you then think.....? |

| Research question | Interview questions: Athletes over 18 year olds |
|---|---|

| | |
|---|---|
| What are the needs and problems of high performance athletes who are still at school, and what are the characteristics of successful schooling models that best meet the needs of these young people?Guiding questions:What are the goals and expected outcomes that high performance school-age athletes have, and how might these different goals be in conflict?What are the experiences of the high performance athlete at school within different schooling models?What schooling models exist in Australia for the high performance athletes? | Introducing:Can you tell me about experiences of being a high performance athlete whilst you were at school?Do you remember a time when you were having such experience(s)?Could you describe in as much detail as you can an experience you think or thought was one in which school-age athletes faced problems in combining school and sport commitments?Follow up:Key on initial responses |
| Same question-different contexts for three groups of participants: over 18 years athletesConcrete situations better than hypothetical or theoretical questionsWhy & what before howMix difficult and easy questions | Probing:Could you say something more about (support)....?Can you give a more detailed description of.....?Can you think or any times when.....?Indirect:Whilst at school, how did you balance between your sport and education commitments?How did you as a high performance school-age athlete cope with this combination of sport and education commitments?How could it of been made easier for you?How would you describe an athlete friendly experience?How would you describe an athlete unfriendly experience? |
| | Specifying:What problems did you encounter?What were your needs?Towards end of interview if necessary:Direct:Have you ever.....When you mention.....Do you then think.....? |

| Research question | Interview questions for Parents |
|---|---|
| What are the needs and problems of high performance athletes who are still at school, and what are the characteristics of successful schooling models that best meet the needs of these young people?Guiding questions:What are the goals and expected outcomes that high performance school-age athletes have, and how might these different goals be in conflict?What are the experiences of the high performance athlete at school within different schooling models?What schooling models exist in Australia for the high performance athletes? | Introducing:Can you tell me about the relationship you have with your school?Could you describe in as much detail as you the relationship you think or thought was one in which school-age athletes faced problems in the school your child attends/attended?Follow up:Key on initial responses |

| | |
|---|---|
| Same question-different contexts for three groups of participantsConcrete situations better than hypothetical or theoretical questions: ParentsWhy & what before howMix difficult and easy questions | Probing:Could you say something more about (support)....?Can you give a more detailed description of.....?Can you think or any times when.....? |
| | Specifying:What do you look for in schools and the support they offer high performance school-age athletes?What are the advantages/disadvantages of the school your child attends?What problems do these young people encounter?What are these young people needs? |
| | Indirect:How do you work with the school your child attends to meet the needs and demands of your young athlete?How does the young athlete balance between sport and education commitments?How would you describe an athlete friendly experience?How would you describe an athlete unfriendly experience? |
| | Towards end of interview if necessary:Direct:Have you ever.....When you mention.....Do you then think.....? |

| Research question | Interview questions for Teachers |
|---|---|
| What are the needs and problems of high performance athletes who are still at school, and what are the characteristics of successful schooling models that best meet the needs of these young people?Guiding questions:What are the goals and expected outcomes that high performance school-age athletes have, and how might these different goals be in conflict?What are the experiences of the high performance athlete at school within different schooling models?What schooling models exist in Australia for the high performance athletes? | Introducing:Can you tell me about experiences of high performance athletes at your school?Do you remember a time when high performance school-age athletes were having these experiences?Could you describe in as much detail as you can an experience you think or thought was one in which school-age athletes faced problems in combing school and sport commitments at your school?Follow up:Key on initial responses |
| Same question-different contexts for three groups of participants:teachersConcrete situations better than hypothetical or theoretical questionsWhy & what before howMix difficult and easy questions | Probing:Could you say something more about (support)....?Can you give a more detailed description of.....?Can you think or any times when.....? |
| | Specifying:What do you see as problems in young people that combine both the commitments of full-time sport and full-time schooling?What problems do these young people encounter?What are these young people needs? |
| | Indirect:How do you think these young athletes balance between sport and education commitments?How do you think other high performance school-age athletes cope with this combination of sport and education commitments?How does your school support and address the problems and needs of high performance school-age athletes?How would you describe an athlete friendly experience?How would you describe an athlete unfriendly experience? |
| | Towards end of interview if necessary:Direct:Have you ever.....When you mention.....Do you then think.....? |